GRADES (8-11)	GRADES (8-11)	GRADES (8-11)			GRADES (8-11)
Monday, May 22, 2023	Tuesday, May 23, 2023	Wednesda	Wednesday, May 24, 2023		Thursday, May 25, 2023
(2nd) 7:35 - 9:35 (120)	(3rd) 7:35 - 9:35 (120)	(4th) 7:35 - 9:35 (12	(4th) 7:35 - 9:35 (120)		(7th) 7:35 - 9:35 (120)
(1st) 9:45 - 11:45 (120)	(6th) 9:45 - 11:45 (120)	(5th) 9:45 - 11:45 (1	20)	Ма	Make-ups (w/ Teacher) 9:45 - 11:45 (120
Dismissal for	the academic day. Breakfast available 7:10-1	LO:00 AM with supervision	on. Transportat	tion runs at r	egular times
ACC Students 12:00-2:00 (Room 1)	ACC Students 12:00-2:00 (Room 1)	ACC Students 12:00	ACC Students 12:00-2:00 (Room 1)		ACC Students Make-up 12:00-2:00 (Room
Make-up Tests for periods: 2,1 (Room 1)	Make-up Tests for periods: 3,6 (Room 1)	Make-up Tests for pe	eriods: 4,5 (Roo	m 1)
	Teach	er Meetings
(Monday)	(Tuesday)	(Wed	nesday)		(Thursday)
			Teacher Lunch/ Grade/		11:45-2:30 Teacher Luncheon (12:00-12:30 ish)/ Check-Out/ Grade/ Assessments/Teacher Directe
Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks	11:45-2:30 Teacher Lunch/ Grade/ Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks	11:45-2:30 Teacher Lund Assessments/Teacher D	irected Tasks	Ch	eck-Out/ Grade/ As	ssessments/Teacher	Directe
Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks During the last week of school, student in grades 8-1 Grade Equivalent Eligible Students. All study halls wi morning and afternoon transportation. All students in regularly scheduled times, and concludes at 11:45 AN to how grades are assessed for the end of the year:		Assessments/Teacher D at are not mandatory to report only be served during exam w ar closure activities, project p student to best prepare for las	irected Tasks t to is study hall, a reek. Furthermore, i resentations, tests at classes with their ilies, postsecondar	Ch nd a few alread transportation v for the quarter, r teacher for this	eck-Out/ Grade/ As y assessed mixed or vill run at regular tin or final examinatior or quarter. There are ad prospective empl	ssessments/Teacher ourses/ End of Course mes for those students ns. The school day beg some very important	e Exam ts that ne gins at t t reminde
Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks During the last week of school, student in grades 8-1 Grade Equivalent Eligible Students. All study halls wi morning and afternoon transportation. All students in regularly scheduled times, and concludes at 11:45 AN to how grades are assessed for the end of the year:	Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks 1 will report to school each period. The only sections tha ill be supervised as regularly scheduled. Breakfast will o grades 8-11 will either be in class for the end of the yeacher. M. The time placed aside for these courses allows each s tently, and fairly communicate learning progress and acher. It of the social responsibility in the high school setting.	Assessments/Teacher D at are not mandatory to report only be served during exam w ar closure activities, project p student to best prepare for las	irected Tasks t to is study hall, a reek. Furthermore, i resentations, tests st classes with their ilies, postsecondar	Ch nd a few alread transportation v for the quarter, r teacher for this y institutions, ar	eck-Out/ Grade/ As y assessed mixed co vill run at regular tir or final examinatior a quarter. There are d prospective emplos	ssessments/Teacher ourses/ End of Course mes for those students ns. The school day beg some very important	e Exam ts that ne egins at th t reminde
Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks During the last week of school, student in grades 8-1 Grade Equivalent Eligible Students. All study halls wi norning and afternoon transportation. All students in regularly scheduled times, and concludes at 11:45 AN to how grades are assessed for the end of the year: and the part of the purpose of grades is to clearly, accurately, consist will help students build a strong academic identity an	Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks 1 will report to school each period. The only sections tha ill be supervised as regularly scheduled. Breakfast will o grades 8-11 will either be in class for the end of the yeacher. M. The time placed aside for these courses allows each s tently, and fairly communicate learning progress and acher. It of the social responsibility in the high school setting.	Assessments/Teacher D at are not mandatory to report only be served during exam w ar closure activities, project p student to best prepare for las	irected Tasks t to is study hall, a reek. Furthermore, i resentations, tests st classes with their ilies, postsecondar	Ch nd a few alread transportation v for the quarter, r teacher for this y institutions, ar CALCULATION	y assessed mixed co vill run at regular tir or final examination or guarter. There are d prospective emplor S	ourses/ End of Course mes for those students ns. The school day beg some very important loyers. Chardon High	e Exam ts that ne gins at tl t reminde
Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks During the last week of school, student in grades 8-1 Grade Equivalent Eligible Students. All study halls wi morning and afternoon transportation. All students in regularly scheduled times, and concludes at 11:45 AN to how grades are assessed for the end of the year: and burge bettermineering The purpose of grades is to clearly, accurately, consist will help students build a strong academic identity an Final course grades will be calculated by percentages The grading scale A 90 -100	Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks 1 will report to school each period. The only sections tha ill be supervised as regularly scheduled. Breakfast will o grades 8-11 will either be in class for the end of the yeacher. M. The time placed aside for these courses allows each s tently, and fairly communicate learning progress and acher. It of the social responsibility in the high school setting.	Assessments/Teacher D at are not mandatory to report only be served during exam w ar closure activities, project p student to best prepare for las	irected Tasks t to is study hall, a teek. Furthermore, i resentations, tests at classes with their ilies, postsecondar GRADEBOOK	ch nd a few alread transportation v for the quarter, r teacher for this y institutions, ar CALCULATION ear Course	eck-Out/ Grade/ As y assessed mixed co vill run at regular tir or final examinatior a quarter. There are d prospective emplos	ssessments/Teacher ourses/ End of Course mes for those student: ns. The school day beg some very important loyers. Chardon High ter Course	e Exam ts that ne gins at tl t reminde
Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks During the last week of school, student in grades 8-1 Grade Equivalent Eligible Students. All study halls wi norning and afternoon transportation. All students in egularly scheduled times, and concludes at 11:45 AN o how grades are assessed for the end of the year: and burgeness of grades is to clearly, accurately, consist will help students build a strong academic identity an Final course grades will be calculated by percentages The grading scale A 90 -100 3 80 - 89	Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks 1 will report to school each period. The only sections tha ill be supervised as regularly scheduled. Breakfast will o grades 8-11 will either be in class for the end of the yeacher. M. The time placed aside for these courses allows each s tently, and fairly communicate learning progress and acher. It of the social responsibility in the high school setting.	Assessments/Teacher D at are not mandatory to report only be served during exam w ar closure activities, project p student to best prepare for las	irected Tasks t to is study hall, a reek. Furthermore, 1 resentations, tests at classes with their ilies, postsecondary GRADEBOOK Full Ye Quarter 1	Ch nd a few alread transportation v for the quarter, r teacher for this y institutions, ar CALCULATION car Course 20%	eck-Out/ Grade/ As y assessed mixed cu vill run at regular tir or final examinatior s quarter. There are ad prospective emplor S Semes Quarter 1	ssessments/Teacher ourses/ End of Course mes for those student: ns. The school day beg some very important loyers. Chardon High ter Course	e Exam ts that ne gins at tl t reminde
Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks During the last week of school, student in grades 8-1 Grade Equivalent Eligible Students. All study halls wi morning and afternoon transportation. All students in egularly scheduled times, and concludes at 11:45 AN o how grades are assessed for the end of the year: The purpose of grades is to clearly, accurately, consist will help students build a strong academic identity an Final course grades will be calculated by percentages The grading scale A 90 -100 B 80 - 89 C 70 - 79	Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks 1 will report to school each period. The only sections tha ill be supervised as regularly scheduled. Breakfast will o grades 8-11 will either be in class for the end of the yeacher. M. The time placed aside for these courses allows each s tently, and fairly communicate learning progress and acher. It of the social responsibility in the high school setting.	Assessments/Teacher D at are not mandatory to report only be served during exam w ar closure activities, project p student to best prepare for las	irected Tasks it to is study hall, a reek. Furthermore, i resentations, tests it classes with their ilies, postsecondary GRADEBOOK Full Ye Quarter 1 Quarter 2 Midterm Quarter 3	Ch nd a few alread transportation v for the quarter, r teacher for this y institutions, ar CALCULATION car Course 20% 20% 10% 20%	eck-Out/ Grade/ As y assessed mixed co vill run at regular tin or final examination a quarter. There are ad prospective emplor S Quarter 1 Quarter 1 Quarter 2 Midterm Final Grade	sessments/Teacher ourses/ End of Course mes for those students is. The school day beg some very important loyers. Chardon High ter Course 40% 20% 100%	e Exam ts that ne gins at tl t reminde
Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks During the last week of school, student in grades 8-1 Grade Equivalent Eligible Students. All study halls wi norning and afternoon transportation. All students in egularly scheduled times, and concludes at 11:45 AN o how grades are assessed for the end of the year: The purpose of grades is to clearly, accurately, consist will help students build a strong academic identity an Final course grades will be calculated by percentages The grading scale A 90 -100 3 80 - 89 2 70 - 79 0 60 - 69	Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks 1 will report to school each period. The only sections tha ill be supervised as regularly scheduled. Breakfast will o grades 8-11 will either be in class for the end of the yea M. The time placed aside for these courses allows each s tently, and fairly communicate learning progress and ach id foster social responsibility in the high school setting. s, not letter grades.	Assessments/Teacher D at are not mandatory to repor only be served during exam w ar closure activities, project p student to best prepare for las	irected Tasks it to is study hall, a resentations, tests it classes with their ilies, postsecondary GRADEBOOK Full Ye Quarter 1 Quarter 2 Midterm Quarter 3 Quarter 4	Ch nd a few alread transportation v for the quarter, r teacher for this y institutions, ar CALCULATION car Course 20% 20% 20% 20% 20% 20%	eck-Out/ Grade/ As y assessed mixed co vill run at regular tir or final examinatior a quarter. There are ad prospective emplor S Quarter 1 Quarter 1 Quarter 2 Midterm Final Grade Quarter 3	sessments/Teacher ourses/ End of Course mes for those students is. The school day beg some very important loyers. Chardon High ter Course 40% 20% 100% 40%	e Exam ts that ne gins at tl t reminde
Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks During the last week of school, student in grades 8-1 Grade Equivalent Eligible Students. All study halls wi norning and afternoon transportation. All students in egularly scheduled times, and concludes at 11:45 AN o how grades are assessed for the end of the year: The purpose of grades is to clearly, accurately, consist will help students build a strong academic identity an Final course grades will be calculated by percentages The grading scale A 90 -100 3 80 - 89 2 70 - 79 0 60 - 69	Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks 1 will report to school each period. The only sections tha ill be supervised as regularly scheduled. Breakfast will o grades 8-11 will either be in class for the end of the yeacher. M. The time placed aside for these courses allows each s tently, and fairly communicate learning progress and acher. It of the social responsibility in the high school setting.	Assessments/Teacher D at are not mandatory to repor only be served during exam w ar closure activities, project p student to best prepare for las	irected Tasks it to is study hall, a resentations, tests it classes with their ilies, postsecondary GRADEBOOK Full Ye Quarter 1 Quarter 2 Midterm Quarter 3 Quarter 4 Final	Ch nd a few alread transportation v for the quarter, r teacher for this y institutions, ar CALCULATION car Course 20% 20% 20% 20% 20% 10% 20% 10%	eck-Out/ Grade/ As y assessed mixed co vill run at regular tir or final examinatior a quarter. There are ad prospective emplor S Quarter 1 Quarter 1 Quarter 2 Midterm Final Grade Quarter 3 Quarter 4	sessments/Teacher ourses/ End of Course mes for those students ns. The school day beg some very important loyers. Chardon High ter Course 40% 20% 100% 40% 40%	e Exam ts that ne gins at tl t reminde
Grade Equivalent Eligible Students. All study halls wi morning and afternoon transportation. All students in regularly scheduled times, and concludes at 11:45 AN to how grades are assessed for the end of the year: The purpose of grades is to clearly, accurately, consist will help students build a strong academic identity an Final course grades will be calculated by percentages The grading scale A 90 -100 B 80 - 89 C 70 - 79 D 60 - 69	Assessments/Teacher Directed Tasks 1 will report to school each period. The only sections the ill be supervised as regularly scheduled. Breakfast will o grades 8-11 will either be in class for the end of the yee M. The time placed aside for these courses allows each s tently, and fairly communicate learning progress and ach d foster social responsibility in the high school setting. s, not letter grades. hole number in Infinite Campus. Example: An 89.5% will	Assessments/Teacher D at are not mandatory to repor only be served during exam w ar closure activities, project p student to best prepare for las	irected Tasks it to is study hall, a resentations, tests it classes with their ilies, postsecondary GRADEBOOK Full Ye Quarter 1 Quarter 2 Midterm Quarter 3 Quarter 4	Ch nd a few alread transportation v for the quarter, r teacher for this y institutions, ar CALCULATION car Course 20% 20% 20% 20% 20%	eck-Out/ Grade/ As y assessed mixed co vill run at regular tir or final examinatior a quarter. There are ad prospective emplor S Quarter 1 Quarter 1 Quarter 2 Midterm Final Grade Quarter 3	sessments/Teacher ourses/ End of Course mes for those students is. The school day beg some very important loyers. Chardon High ter Course 40% 20% 100% 40%	e Exam ts that ne egins at th t reminde